

ML565 A & B: UNDERSTANDING ORGANIZATIONAL DYNAMICS (A 2 units, B 2 units).

Shelley Trebesch, Assistant Professor of Leadership

DESCRIPTION:

All ministries exist in some form of organization, whether it be a church, mission agency, or other type of Christian organization. Therefore, understanding various organizational dynamics such as organizational culture, structures of organizations, and organizational leadership is critical for any leader desiring to have effective ministry within the organization. This course will provide an introduction to the seminal theories in organizational dynamics including purpose/vision of ministries, ministry values, learning organizations, and organizational structures, culture and lifestyles. Through the use of the seminal theories, case studies and the final project, students will have the opportunity to analyze their own organizations and plan for the future.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: By the end of this course, students will have:

- Built an organizational leadership community
- Interacted with seminal theories of organizational dynamics
- Observed their church/organization through a variety of organizational dynamics theories
- Evaluated their church/organization in order to diagnose health and offer prescriptives if necessary
- Sharpened their organizational leadership expertise
