

ML 565: UNDERSTANDING ORGANIZATIONAL DYNAMICS (4 units).

Shelley Trebesch, Assistant Professor of Leadership

DESCRIPTION:

All ministries exist in some form of organization, whether it be a church, mission agency, or other type of Christian organization. Therefore, understanding various organizational dynamics such as organizational culture, structures of organizations, and organizational leadership is critical for any leader desiring to have effective ministry within the organization. This course will provide an introduction to the seminal theories in organizational dynamics including purpose/vision of ministries, ministry values, learning organizations, and organizational structures, culture and lifestyles. Through the use of the seminal theories, case studies and the final project, students will have the opportunity to analyze their own organizations and plan for the future.

COURSE FORMAT:

The course consists of spiritual formation, lectures, small groups, case studies, and assignments. This is a one-week intensive that forms part of the Global Leadership Seminar 2, a required two-week intensive course for the MA in Global Leadership. NOTE: Before the campus seminar students will read Built to Last: Successful Habits of Visionary Companies, before the first day of class.
