

THIS ECD IS FOR the SUMMER(A)/FALL(B) 2009 QUARTERS ONLY!

This if for the SEMINAR course beginning June 22, 2009

If you are viewing this after that time it serves as a SAMPLE ONLY

ML582 A & B: CHARACTER, COMMUNITY, AND LEADERSHIP (A is 2 units, B is 2 units); 19th Cohort
Wilmer Villacorta, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Leadership (ML582A&B)

DESCRIPTION:

Students from around the globe will join faculty in dialogue around topics of character formation. The challenge of developing character as a foundation for leadership will be applied to student's lives through reading, discussions, lectures, small group exercises, experimentation with electronic community building tools, community meals, tours of the campus, and silent reflection. The work for this course sequence (4-units) spans 2 quarters. Part A - pre-seminar work and in-class activities: students will meet in Pasadena for one week which serves primarily as a campus orientation to Fuller Seminary resources, the MAGL program, and cohort members; and Part B - post-seminar work and final paper.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: As a result of this course sequence students will have:

- Prepared for continuing studies at Fuller through an orientation to campus resources
- Celebrated further development of the cohort learning community with fellow students
- Analyzed at least one model of character formation
- Examined several character formation issues of leaders
- Explored global trends in Christian leadership
- Revised MAGL Curriculum Sheet through conversations with coordinators and peers

COURSE FORMAT:

ML582A will meet for the first week of a required two-week intensive residency for the MA in Global Leadership from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Students will do pre-seminar readings (read Clinton, Thrall, et al., and Willard before class) and assignments. ML582B will involve post-seminar readings and reports, online connecting, and completion of final paper after students return home.
